

Tri-County RVTHS GRADE 9 – OPTIONAL SUMMER READING LIST

The English Department would like to invite your rising ninth grade child to participate in our freshmen summer reading of David Lubar's Sleeping Freshmen Never Lie. This title is available through your local library in both print and electronic media, as well as through your local booksellers. Additionally, there is an audio edition of the novel.

Due to our recent national circumstances, the English Department has decided to make this summer reading optional, but we do strongly encourage freshmen to complete the reading and the related project to keep them engaged in reading throughout the summer, as well as to continue practicing analytical skills in preparation for their first year of high school.

Below is the link to the optional project. Students who complete this project should submit it to their English teacher during their first full academic week next fall. This project will count as an extra credit assessment in the first trimester of English class.

We look forward to meeting the ninth graders in the fall.

Sincerely,
The Tri-County English Department
